

INDIGENOUS AND "WESTERN" KNOWLEDGE WHOSE KNOWLEDGE COUNTS?!

Organizations in South Africa, Bolivia, and Germany share their approaches to honouring traditional knowledge in their communities and educational work.

For students, educators, facilitators, NGOs, activists, and anyone interested in social and economic equality worldwide

22nd Sept 2022
3PM - 6PM (CET, SOUTH AFRICA)
9AM - 12AM (BOLIVIA)

AGENDA

SEPTEMBER 22, 2022

03 TO 06 PM (SOUTH AFRICA, GERMANY)

3.00 pm - 3.10 pm	Welcome and Introduction Elke Weißer & Mary Whalen, EPIZ
	Presentations
3.10 pm - 3.40 pm	Asset-Based Community Development, Local Knowledge and the SDGs Isy Barczyk, Sandile Fanana, Elona Mteto & Alina Stiehm – Amava Oluntu, South Africa
3.40 pm - 4.10 pm	Art and Culture as a Starting Point to Involve Children and Young People in Community Democracy and Solidarity Ana Salazar – Fundación Comunidad der Productores en Artes (COMPA) / Teatro Trono, Bolivia
4.10 pm - 4.40 pm	transformation in natura® - Rediscovering the European Tradition of Connecting with Nature David Seghezzi – uma institute, Germany
4.40 pm - 4.55 pm	Break
4.55 pm - 5.25 pm	Workshops
5.25 pm - 6.00 pm	Discussion & Wrap-Up
6.00 pm	End

Learn more about

